CUSTER WILL BE GREATEST PLACE

Writes Dr. Meador From Way Down In New Mexico--Thinks News Editor would Make A Good Man For Western Newspaper Fields.

CUSTER HAS THE PEOPLE.

My Dear Sir and Friend:—You please change my paper from Lake Arthur, N.M., to Nava Visca, N.M. As I have changed my place of residence and my wife and myself are afraid we will miss a copy of the Breckenridge News.

I am glad to see the steps you are taking for a pike from Irvington to Custer and if that is a go, it will be extended on to Leitchfield, then the people will get busy and build one from Hardinsburg and Elizabethtown, by the way of Garfield. So Custer will be the greatest place in Breckenridge County for she has the people and the country. If every body knew the need of such roads as I do in the Custer country, they would not mind to turn their time and money to such work.

If Custer and Irvington pike should be built you should have credit for it. I know, Mr. Babbage you would make a good Western News-paper man for you are a "Booster" when you get started.

I am 40 miles west of Dalhart and my friends who have lots there are going to make good with them, as there is going to be another new R. R. there in a few months, and Dalhart will "Boom" again. With success to you and the good roads. I am, Your friend,

Dr. R. W. Meador,
Nava Visca, New Mexico, July 24 1911.

BRAKEMAN

Smith is Thrown From Train by Two Tramps And His Arm is Broken.

On Thursday morning as a fast freight was coming east two miles above Lewisport, O. P. Smith, a brakeman, discovered two tramps stealing a ride on his train, and he ordered them to get off and started to put them off, when they resisted it and attacked him. After a struggle they succeeded in throwing him from the top of the car, and one arm was broken and several bruises were inflicted. The train was stopped at Petrie and the hoboes there made their escape. The trainmen then went back and got Smith and he was taken to Louisville, where he is now being cared for in a hospital. He will recover.

The officers were notified here and at Lewisport and search was made for the tramps, but without success. It is believed that the men made their escape across the river. Coming so soon after the tragic happening at Lewisport in which Bert McCarty lost his life, there was considerable excitement over the matter, and many regrets were expressed because the remaining trainmen did not arrest the men or run the train with the men on board up to Hawesville, where they could scarcely have made their escape.—Hancock Clarion.
